OPTIONS FOR LAWYERS WORKGROUP

“Finding a Legal Culture That Fits”

Wednesday, July 15th, 2009 at 12:15-1:30pm

Every Legal environment has its own culture which could be described as a set of values, conventions and social practices associated with that particular group of lawyers. This includes things like hours worked, social activities, general atmosphere, and the level of closeness with others in the office. The level of congruence between you and this culture often makes the difference between a great job and a stressful one. This workshop will help you identify a culture that works for you and where and how to find it.

Options for Lawyers is a networking, education and support group for lawyers making job or career transitions and for lawyers wishing to examine their options both personally and professionally.

This group meets the third Wednesday of each month from 12:15PM to 1:30PM in Vancouver at the LAP office, 1080 Mainland Street, Suite 415.

For further information, please call the Lawyers Assistance Program at 604-685-2171 or just drop into a meeting.

This workshop will be facilitated by Robert Bircher B.A., LL.B., M.A., Ph.D.(cand.) who works for the Lawyers Assistance Program. Robert practiced law for 25 years, taught at several universities and has successfully helped many Lawyers through difficult career transitions. There is no charge for this workshop.
